Subject: Summer literary competitions

Dear Parents,

Greetings from Woodlem Park Al Hamidiya Private School!

Woodlem Park Al Hamidiya School, remains committed to nurturing strong writing skills and fostering creativity among our students. To support this vision, we are pleased to introduce a few Summer literary competitions from renowned language-promoting organisations: BriBooks and the Emirates Literature Foundation.

1. BriBooks – Summer Book Writing Festival UAE 2026

An international programme designed to inspire young storytellers aged 8–18. This initiative encourages students to explore their imagination, enhance creative writing skills, and publish their own books during the summer break.

Highlights for Students

- Write & publish their own book on the BriBooks platform
- Access to guided workshops and author resources
- Participation certificate for every published author
- Opportunities for UAE & international recognition
- Book launches, author showcases, media spotlights
- Invitations for interviews and podcast features
- Global exposure among young authors worldwide

Participation is completely free. Register here: <https://www.camp.bribooks.com/events/student/signup/sbwf-ae-2026?sid=192134>

Once registered, students will receive access to writing resources, workshops, and publishing support. For assistance: support@bribooks.com

2. Emirates Literature Foundation – Student Competitions

The Emirates Literature Foundation offers a range of annual competitions that inspire students to read, write, and engage with literature. Through events held during the Emirates Airline Festival of Literature, students meet authors, discover new books, and participate in creative challenges. Competitions are available both in Arabic and English. competition details here: <https://elfdubai.org/education/#competition>

We are proud to encourage and support the next generation of young authors. Let us make this summer a season of creativity, confidence, and joyful storytelling for our children.

Warm regards,

Principal
